

THE AURICLE WINE LIST

The Auricle is the world's only "oenosthetic" wine bar, whose profits go to support its sonic art gallery. Its wine list is curated to complement the current exhibition, with wines matched to the specific sonic works playing in the gallery and the bar's playlist. The dense and grainy tones that characterise many of the works in this month's group show, have inspired this selection of richly textured and robustly flavoured wines.

Recommended wines with selected works from London: A Sonic

Fragment

Pegasus Bay Waipara Chardonnay 2012

This complex local Chardonnay with its notes of flint and nut, possesses both the intensity to work with the density of Wall to Wall, and zesty grapefruit acidity that propels it across the palate at a similar tempo

glass / $14 bottle / $57

The Don Martinborough Pinot Gris 2014

An intriguing "orange" hued Pinot Gris with peachy fruit and a lightness and lifted fennel aromatics that match the rhythms of Untitled (Translation 1), while the structure gained from its fermentation with its skins complements the bassier elements of the work

glass / $11 bottle / $43

Mustiguillo "Mestizaje" El Terrerazo , Spain 2012

Redolent of exotic star anise spice and incense, the voluptuously rich, ripe blackberry and blackcurrant fruit if this concentrated Spanish red blend makes a powerful combination with sub-bass frequencies of National Grid

glass / $13 bottle / $51

Tasting flight of all three wines (50cl pours) - $15
